

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE.

VOL. LI. NO. 2

CAMDEN, TENNESSEE.

JULY 9, 1915

CHAPTER 375 PRIVATE ACTS

HOUSE BILL NUMBER 1372

An act to authorize and empower Benton County to issue bonds for the purpose of building, equipping and furnishing a court house.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, that the county of Benton, through and by its Quarterly County Court, be and is hereby authorized and empowered to issue and sell bonds of the county for the purpose of building, equipping and furnishing a court house for the county, not exceeding the sum of thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars, said bonds to bear interest at the rate of five (5) per cent, payable as follows: Three thousand ($3,000) dollars at the end of one year from the date issuance and three thousand ($3,000) annually until all are paid in full.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, that before said bonds are issued the Quarterly County Court of said county, with a legally constituted quorum present, shall by a majority vote favor the issuance of said bonds by a yea and nay vote; the vote to be recorded on the minutes of the court as cast.

Section 3. Be it further enacted, that said bonds shall be signed by the Judge of the County Court of Benton County, and countersigned by the Clerk of said court with his official seal affixed to the same, and such bonds shall be in denominations of not less than five hundred ($500) dollars and not more than three thousand ($3,000) to suit the purchaser.

Section 4. Be it further enacted, that each of said bonds shall have attached to it interest coupons showing the amount of each semi-annual installment of interest on said bonds, and when same shall fall due, which coupons shall be signed in the same manner as the bonds, but without the official seal of the clerk, and showing on their face the number of the bond to which they are attached.

Section 5. Be it further enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Quarterly County Court of said county and it is hereby authorized and empowered to annually levy a tax upon all taxable property and privileges for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of said bonds as same matures or falls due.

Section 6. Be it further enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Judge of the County Court of Benton County to keep in a well bound book a record of the number and denominations of all bonds issued, to whom issued and also of all bonds and coupons redeemed or paid, and he shall make settlement with the County Trustee upon receipts and disbursements of taxes collected for the purpose of paying off said bonds and interests thereon in the same manner as is done with other county funds.

Section 7. Be it further enacted, that the Trustee of said county shall collect and account for the tax herein authorized in the same manner as he is required by law to collect and account for other county taxes, and shall receive the same compensation as for collecting and disbursing other county taxes; and the County Court may require such Trustee to give additional bond for the performance of his duties in collecting and accounting of said tax.

Section 8. Be it further enacted, that all laws and acts inconsistent and in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 9. Be it further enacted, that this act take effect from and after its passage, the public welfare requiring it.

Passed May 13, 1915.

WILLIAM P. COOPER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ALBERT E. HILL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved May 17, 1915.

TOM C. RYE,

PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR

CUT WEEDS ON PROPERTY

Whereas, flies and mosquitoes are originators and spreaders of malarial and other diseases; and,

Whereas, growing weeds are breeding and harboring places for flies and mosquitoes; and,

Whereas, the sidewalks, vacant lots, alleys, and a great many front and back yards in Camden have a heavy coat of growing weeds on them;

Now, therefore, I, T. J. Lowry, Mayor of the town of Camden, earnestly request all citizens of the town to cut, or have cut, the weeds growing on their property and along the sidewalks in front of their property.

This July 5, 1915.

T. J. LOWRY,

Mayor.

BIG SANDY.

The field day and picnic here Saturday was a success. There was a good crowd, considering the unfavorable weather condition. The crowd was quiet and orderly, and everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion.

The sporting spirit was at high tide and many entered the races. This feature was managed by C. W. Blakey, who has had much experience in athletics. The judges were G. W. E. Herrin, W. T. Pafford and Virgil Raspberry, and premiums were awarded as follows:

Fat man's race—First premium, J. S. Lindsey; second, A. H. Myers.

Wheelbarrow race—First premium, J. H. Hastings; second, Douglas Morris.

Boys' race—First premium, Bertie Bowles; second, Amos Doty.

J. J. WEATHERLY GOES TO REWARD

DIED LAST FRIDAY MORNING

On last Friday morning, while friends and relatives were anxiously waiting and hoping, the message came from Hot Springs, Ark., that Joe J. Weatherly was dead. The sad news brought sorrow to the hearts of hundreds of friends and patrons throughout the length and breadth of Benton County. Camden realized that she had lost a strong character and a steadfast friend. Joe Weatherly typified in his life many things that are best in the term, "good citizen."

In all the walks of life this son of Benton won success; and it was success of a lasting kind, for it was built not on ability alone but upon character. Here in Camden Mr. Weatherly was best known as a man of action. He had an abiding faith in the future of Camden, and it was here he found his real vocation, and, coupled with a bright intellect and untiring energy, won for him the position he occupied in the business world.

Modest, yet forceful, the incentive for his every act, seemingly, was a desire to serve the best interests of his county and her people. Mr. Weatherly was a man of generous impulses; he was kind and sympathetic, ever ready and willing to extend courtesies and favors to his friends and customers, and was never known to withhold assistance from a truly meritorious cause, no matter whether it was a case of distress or had for its object the upbuilding of the town and county and the betterment of the conditions of mankind. When the Atlanta limited from Memphis arrived here about 1 o'clock Sunday morning fully two hundred people had assembled at the railway station at that early morning hour, and silently and with bowed heads attested to his popularity.

Impressive funeral services were held at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday afternoon, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Frank B. Jones, after which all that was mortal of a lamented citizen were conveyed to Camden Cemetery where he rests in peace. Flowers seem to be the best emblem we have to express our love and esteem, for we weave them around the cradle, the marriage altar and the tomb. Thus would we leave him, and in memory keep him, while silently reposing beneath a bower of flowers.

When you feel lazy, out of sorts and yawn a good deal in the daytime, you can charge it to a torpid liver which has allowed the system to get full of impurities. Herbine cures all disorders produced by an inactive liver. It strengthens that organ, cleanses the bowels and puts the system in good healthy condition. Price 50c. Sold by all druggists.

The funeral of the late W. R. Marchbanks will be preached by Rev. E. R. Conder at Chalk Hill on the third Sunday in July at 11 o'clock a. m.

In every home where there is a baby there should also be a bottle of McGee's Baby Elixir. It may be needed at any time to correct sour stomach, wind colic, diarrhoea or summer complaint. It is a wholesome remedy, contains no opium, morphine or injurious drug of any kind. Price 25c and 50c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.
